

Spring 2023 wine list

Champagne

1. Dom Pérignon. If you ever fancy being decadently hedonistic then this is for you. Only ever created when the harvest is perfect. Aged for 7 years before being released. This Champagne is fragile, timeless and illuminated with distinctive aspects of the given year. Each vintage is consistent yet each one is individual. This Champagne is Vegan.

£260

2. Gosset Grand Blanc de Blancs NV. Subtle and elegant. This champagne is full of finesse and is the best aperitif and can be drunk throughout a meal without a false note. Fine bubbles, very light colour.

£125

3. Gosset Grand Rose Brut NV. A strong, bright and clear salmon-pink hue, embellished by flighty ruby-red reflections that sporadically revive and exalt the colour of this wine. The first nose is reminiscent of fresh summer fruits, combining the aromas of wild red berries found in bramble hedges and undergrowth in an ordered unity: raspberries, wild strawberries and redcurrants, all ripe red to perfection.

£125

4. Bollinger Brut Special Cuvée NV. Bollinger house style is known for its Pinot Noir dominance with the cuvee blends being crafted from Grand & Premier Cru vineyards and is the purest expression of the Bollinger House. This is a bone dry, full-bodied style with lovely biscuity notes.

£89

5. Veuve Clicquot Brut NV. This Grande Marques flagship wine is a blend of around 50 cru villages and reserve wines from different vintages. This wonderfully rich wine expresses fruit, finesse and style with the classic yeasty champagne bouquet. This Champagne is Vegan.

£82

6. Moët & Chandon Brut Impérial NV. Consistently elegant and easy to appreciate, this classic champagne is the epitome of style. This Champagne is Vegan.

£79

7. Jules Feraud Cuvée de Reserve Brut Rosé. Beautiful deep pink Champagne with a rich, intensely fruity nose which follows through on the palate with red fruits prevailing on the finish.

£59

8. Champagne Jules Feraud. Small production from a co-operative crafting this stunning champagne. An extremely appealing nose of caramel and buttered toast, grilled nuts and pistachio shells fresh acidity and a long length. A nice crisp bite on the finish. Very dry, Just great for raising a glass because you can.... This Champagne is Vegan.
